

CHIRON, THE APRIL 8, 2024, SOLAR ECLIPSE, AMERICA, AND THE WORLD

“A YEAR OF WOUNDING, HEALING, OR JOY?”

First, let me say that I don't really predict events. I just forecast the astrological weather, and as the illustration below suggests, in between this weather and specific events stand people with the capacity to exercise free will. Thus, there are some people who frequently turn astrological lemons into lemonade because they are mature and have learned how to handle adversity. President Biden tends to fall into this category, but then there are other people like Donald Trump who are not like that, and from an astrological point of view they are very predictable. Hence, when Trump has a bad Mars aspect, it is almost a certainty that he will be very angry. Similarly, while certain individuals will learn how to transcend their astrological conditions, countries and masses of people are often more predictable in how they will respond.

Solar
Eclipse
4/8/2024

On April 8, 2024, there will be a total eclipse of the Sun in which the Sun, Moon, and Chiron will all be at 19 degrees, 24 minutes, of Aries. As they say, that'll leave a mark! Some will be wounded, some will heal, and a few will transcend. And as the next slide shows, the path of totality for this eclipse crosses over a good portion of the United States.

Also, even though Saturn has moved on and Pluto has moved into Aquarius, the positions of most of the outer planets are approximately the same as they were during the eclipses of October 2023. Thus, the spring of 2024 may see either a continuation of events from October 2023 or new events that are along the same lines.

Additionally, during the October 14, 2023, Solar Eclipse, the Sun, Moon, and Mercury were in opposition to Chiron which intensified the war and suffering between Israel and Hamas. Thus, as we shall see, the April 8, 2024, Solar Eclipse may continue this and bring about even more wounding and suffering. But before saying any more, let's talk a little bit about Chiron.

Chiron, also known in astronomy as 2060 Chiron, is a small celestial body that normally resides between Saturn and Uranus. However, it also occasionally travels inside the orbit of Saturn and outside the orbit of Uranus. It was discovered in 1977 by astronomer Charles Kowal, and the glyph for Chiron, a “K” on top of an “O,” is said to stand for “object Kowal.”

Chiron is named after a centaur in Greek mythology who was renowned as both a teacher and a healer. However, Chiron was eventually wounded by a poisoned arrow and was unable to heal himself. Hence, the image within astrology of Chiron as a “wounded healer.” However, even though we may subconsciously be drawn to myths that embody many of the empirically derived characteristics of a planet, astrology is not mythology, and what is actually observed in practice is much more important than ancient stories.

Chiron is often associated in astrology with wounding, but in my experience, it is really a drive within us to transcend the visible world that we see. Plus, it would make no sense for us to have a drive to wound ourselves. Traveling between Saturn and Uranus, Chiron is a bridge between the known and the unknown, and in its purest form, it is a sweet, joyous, enlightening sensation. But for many, the hard Saturnian shell that they have erected around their reality has to first be cracked before the light can enter. As I often say, you can't make a cosmic omelet without cracking a few cosmic eggs!

Chiron, the Wounded Healer

Healing

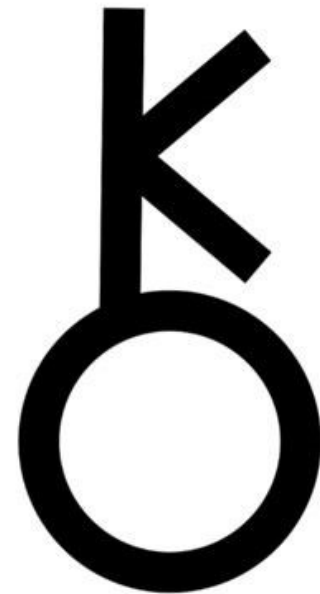

Wholemaking

Transformation

Awareness

Spiritual growth

Service to others

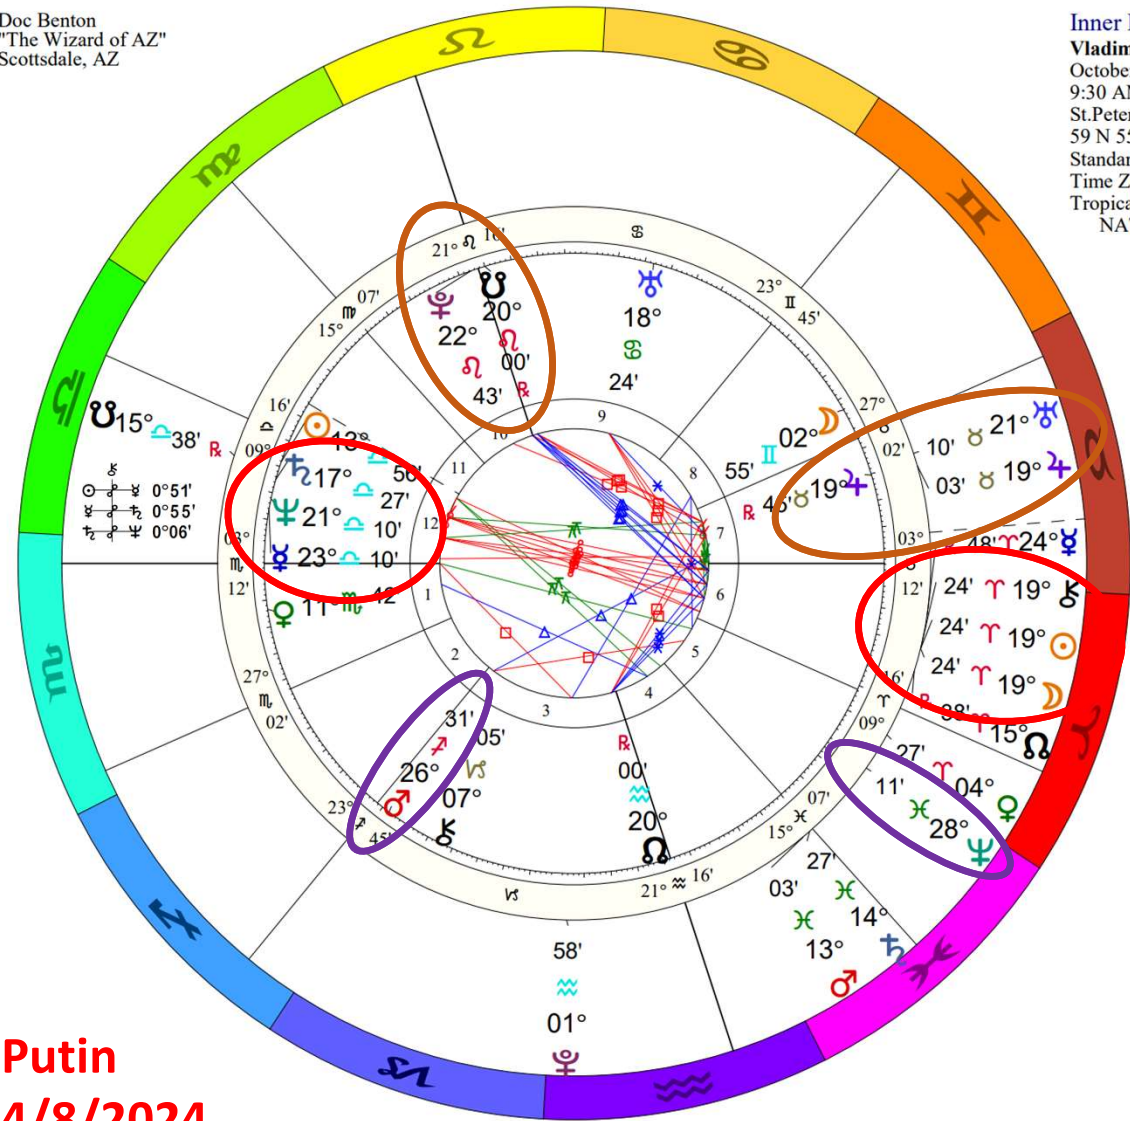

Thus, while many individuals will respond to Chiron's call to transcend, many more will first experience wounding as a byproduct of this drive. As Thomas Edison once said, "Success is 90% perspiration and 10% inspiration," and when it comes to Chiron and the masses, it's often 90% that are wounded and 10% that are inspired.

Presidential elections are scheduled to be held in Russia in March 2024. In accordance with country's electoral law, the first round will be held on Sunday, 17 March. If no candidate receives more than half the vote, a second round will take place exactly three weeks later, on 7 April 2024. The winner of the election is scheduled to be inaugurated on 7 May 2024. Transiting Chiron's opposition to natal Neptune/Saturn persists throughout the spring as does the square from transiting Uranus to natal Pluto/Midheaven/Lunar Nodal Axis and also a square from transiting Neptune to natal Mars.

By May, though, the square from transiting Neptune to natal Mars is fading, but on May 7th there is a square from transiting Mars to natal Chiron that could trigger some wounding of sorts. Either way, I expect it to be a rough spring for Putin.

In the July 2, 1776, chart for the passage of the Resolution for Independence, my preferred chart for America, Chiron is at 20 degrees, 6 minutes, of Aries in opposition to Saturn. At its best, this reflects America's belief in the spiritual dignity and worth of every individual (Aries), but at its worst, these higher aspirations are rejected in favor of conservative control of others (Saturn in Libra).

During the eclipse, the Sun, Moon, and Chiron will be exactly conjunct the Sun/Pluto midpoint in the July 2, 1776, chart, and this suggests that a wounding of political leaders might occur. The last time Chiron was at this position was in 1973 – 1974, and this period saw the resignations of both President Nixon and Vice-President Spiro Agnew.

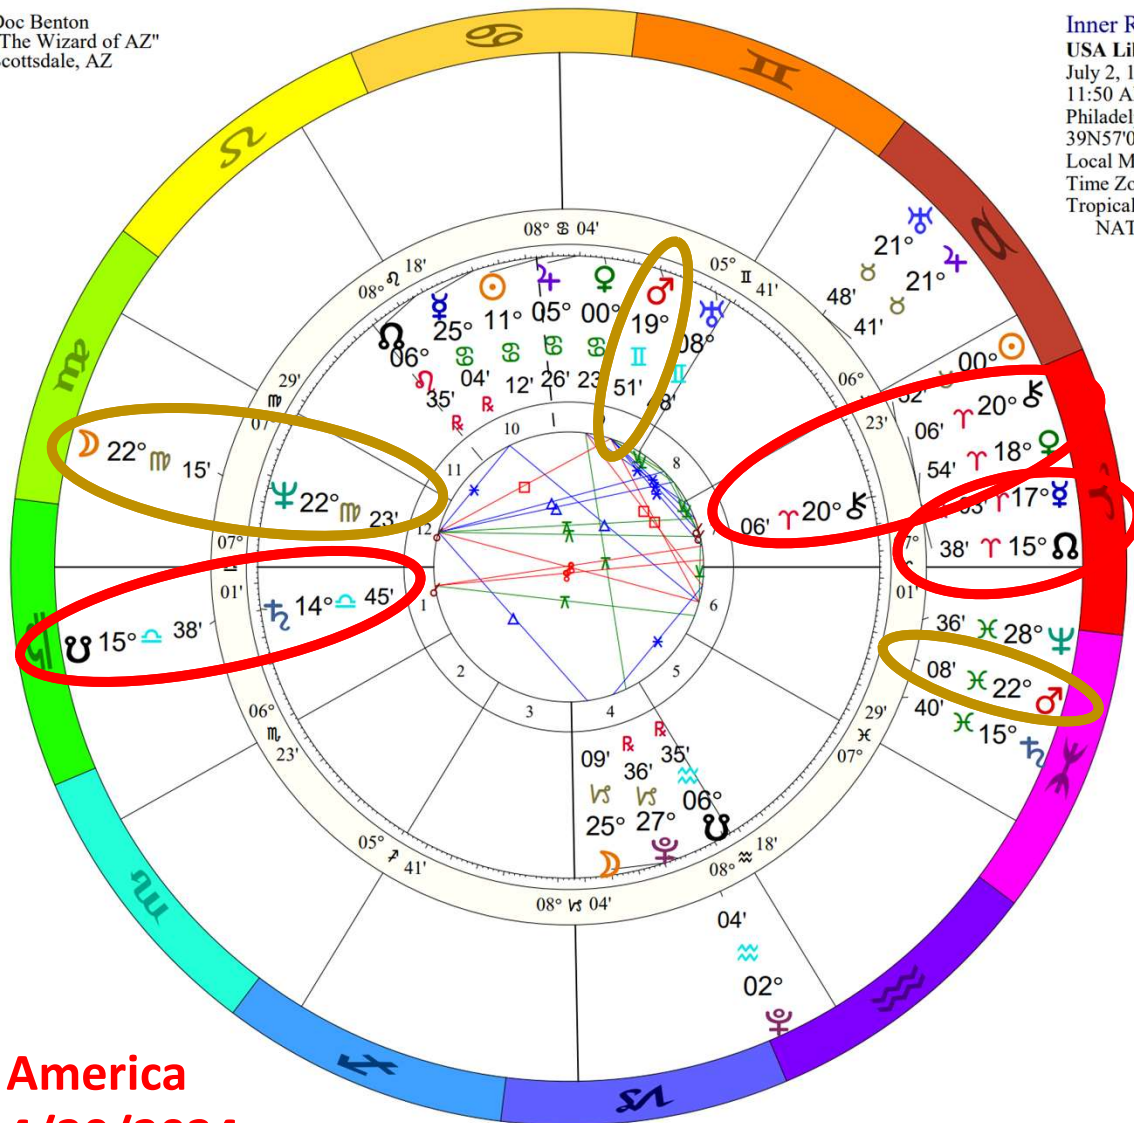

[illegible]

From 1972 to 1975, transiting Chiron made a series of oppositions to natal Saturn and a series of conjunctions to natal Chiron in all of the July 1776 charts for America. These aspects triggered wounding, healing, and transcendence, and the major story during this period was the Watergate scandal, and the work of the Senate's select committee to investigate President Nixon and that scandal was one of Congress' finer moments. Also, the environmental movement and Roe v Wade were in the news.

On April 20, 2024, not long after the April 8 solar eclipse, transiting Chiron will be in exact conjunction with natal Chiron in the July 2, 1776, chart for America. Also, transiting Mars in opposition to natal Neptune and square natal Mars may stir some passions or violence on that day. This is the first of three conjunctions with natal Chiron. The other two occur on November 8, 2024, and February 17, 2025. Again, we went through similar transits from Chiron in the early 1970s, and history is repeating itself.

Three days prior to November 8 is the 2024 presidential election, and the Pluto/Mars opposition promises some tension and possible violence, but several trines and sextiles and the important sextile from Jupiter to Chiron may tilt things toward a more enlightened outcome. Plus, Pluto is almost back in Aquarius, and so people may be yearning for a more progressive result.

Some of the same aspects that are present on November 8 are also in effect on November 5, and the sextile of transiting Jupiter to both transiting Chiron and natal Chiron in all July 1776 charts for America suggests long-term transcendence despite Jupiter's conjunction with aggressive natal Mars. Also, Pluto in Capricorn, but almost in Aquarius, favors a candidate that is strong and rooted in tradition while additionally being capable of leading us into a new future of technology and collaboration.

America
2/17/2025

The 2024 Presidential Election may be a toss-up. Biden has some good aspects, but so does Trump, and Trump's chart on election day could result in an unexpected victory. The outcome is not certain either way. Meanwhile, the transiting/natal Chiron conjunction in the July 2, 1776, chart for America occurs a third and final time for this decade on February 17, 2025, and this time transiting Saturn opposite natal Neptune and square natal Mars may result in more expressions of discord or violence. We shall see.

Regardless of how the election turns out, it looks like Trump will experience a lot of wounding from Chiron in 2024 – 2026 as transiting Chiron squares his natal Saturn and Venus, and when Trump is wounded, he often tends to lash out and wound others.

This is not the first time we have witnessed an eclipse like the one on April 8, 2024. On April 6, 1875, there was another total solar eclipse with the Sun, Moon, and Chiron conjunct in Aries, and this eclipse also stimulated the Chiron/Saturn opposition in all July 1776 charts for America. Was there any wounding in America and the world that year? Yes there was as the next few slides indicate.

Solar

4/6/1875

- The Mason County War began as a German-American mob broke into a prison and lynched cattle rustlers in central Texas.
- The SS Gothenburg sank off Australia's east coast with the loss of approximately 102 lives, including a number of high-profile civil servants and dignitaries.
- The majority of the Yavapai and Tonto Apache tribes were forced by the United States Cavalry to walk at gunpoint from Arizona's Verde Valley, to the San Carlos Apache Indian Reservation, 180 miles to the southeast. The two tribes were not allowed to return to the Verde Valley until 1900.
- The Page Act of 1875 was enacted in the United States, effectively prohibiting the immigration of Chinese women.
- 'Albert's Swarm' of Rocky Mountain locusts began to devastate the western United States. The size of this swarm has been estimated at 12 ½ trillion, and it blotted out the Sun.

- German liner SS Schiller wrecked on the rocks off the Isles of Scilly, with the loss of 335 lives
- The Dublin whiskey fire in Ireland left 13 people dead and caused millions in damage.
- The third Carlist War continued in Spain (1872 – 1876).
- Vice President Henry Wilson died of a stroke.
- The American merchant sailing ship Ellen Southard was wrecked off Liverpool in England, and 12 crew and life-boatmen were lost.
- The Ottoman state declared partial bankruptcy and placed its finances in the hands of European creditors. It was also suffering widespread nationalist rebellions resulting in Russian intervention and Great Power tensions.
- The German emigrant ship SS Deutschland ran aground off the English coast, resulting in the death of 157 passengers and crew.
- An explosion in the South Yorkshire Coalfield of England resulted in the death of 143 miners.

Tchaikovsky

And finally in 1875, the first performance of the famous Piano Concerto No. 1 by Peter Ilyich Tchaikovsky was given in Boston, Massachusetts. Much of Tchaikovsky's music from this point on conveys the transcendent sweetness and beauty of Chiron, and with Chiron conjunct his Ascendant, he is the Chiron composer!

Past Jupiter/Chiron conjunctions have brought us television (Taurus), the United Nations (Libra), the Beatles (Pisces), Star Wars (Aries), Harry Potter (Cancer), and Obamacare (Aquarius). I expected the March 11, 2023, conjunction in Aries to put a focus on individual spirituality like the Jedi of Star Wars.

Also, Austin, TX, was first incorporated on January 15, 1839, as the town of 'Waterloo,' but later that year on December 17 it was re-incorporated as the town of 'Austin.' Notice the opposition of Chiron to the Sun and square the Moon. This configuration explains the underlying spiritual transcendence that's often associated with Austin.

Between 1969 & 1971, a series of squares from transiting Chiron & Uranus to the natal Sun/Chiron opposition activated the natal Sun/Moon/Chiron T-square resulting in a very transcendent decade for many of its residents. Additionally, with Uranus in Libra, relationships were redefined. Men and women dressed alike and were aligned with one another, unlike today where we have 'testosterone cowboys' on one end and 'Kardashians' on the other.

From 2019 through 2021, transiting Chiron and Uranus were once again activating the natal Sun/Moon/Chiron T-square, but this time Uranus made sextiles and trines to the natal Sun/Chiron opposition. Hence, Austin has once again (hopefully) entered a period of transcendence, but this time without the radical redefining of relationships that occurred in the 1970s. Instead, there may be a renaissance in technology and innovation in business

4/8/2024

When we arrive at the Total Eclipse on April 8th, 2024, whatever will happen seems more locked in. The tight conjunction of Sun, Moon, and Chiron in Aries may result in wounding from heat or aggression, Saturn conjunct Mars in Pisces could manifest as either muddled plans for war or plans to ‘dissolve’ war, and ...

Jupiter conjunct Uranus in Taurus could cause unexpected
swings in either direction in financial sectors. Aside from Pluto sextile
Neptune/Venus and Jupiter/Uranus sextile planets in Pisces,
there is not much
going on to relieve the tension. Plus,
Sun/Moon/Chiron are
the focal point,
midway between Saturn/Mars and Jupiter/Uranus.

Solar Eclipse Oct 2 2024

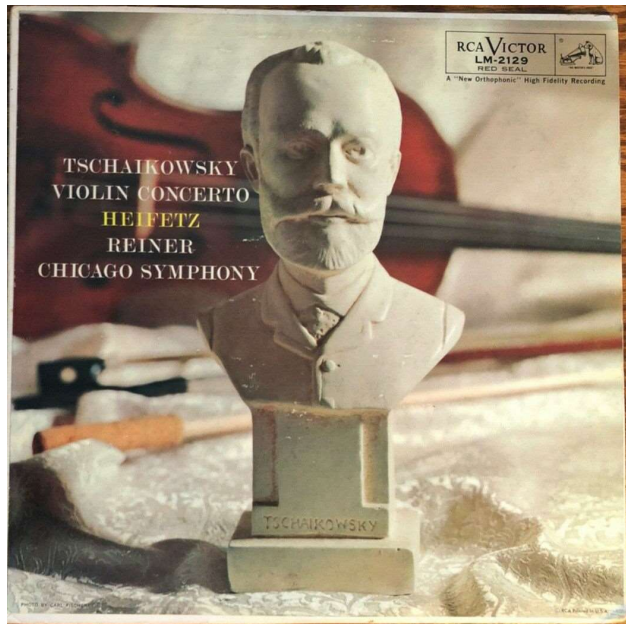

FINAL THOUGHTS

So, based on the recent past, we can probably expect more problems with climate change, more political discord surrounding Donald Trump or other prominent figures in the months and year to come, and perhaps more unrest in the Middle East. However, there will also be opportunities for transcendence for us and the world, and so the question now is how can we make these beneficial outcomes more likely? One way to accomplish this is through meditation, but when you do so, I recommend spending some of that time focused on that sweet, transcendent feeling that, in my opinion, is Chiron's true nature. And if you have trouble zeroing in on that, then just focus on feelings of happiness or love. For me, an easy path to these transcendent feelings is often my memories of 1970s Austin, Texas.

But to return to what you can do individually to make 2024 a good year for America and the world, I recommend the following:

- Start with meditation and find however you can that sweet sensation of transcendence that Chiron represents. If you do, then this will soften your hard shell so that it doesn't need to be broken.
- Do what you can to help others through charity and acts of loving kindness. Be kind to yourself and others. This will make it easier for others to also find that transcendent sweetness of Chiron in their lives.
- And thirdly, listen to the music of Tchaikovsky every day since Tchaikovsky is the 'Chiron composer.' All sensations direct and program the mind, and when the beautiful music of Tchaikovsky or other classical composers is in your head, it is much easier for you to feel balanced and to connect with the true and the beautiful. This is something that is very easy to do and that takes no effort, but at the same time it is an extremely effective way to bring harmony to yourself and to the multiverse.

So, in summary,

LISTEN TO TCHAIKOVSKY, SAVE THE WORLD!
