Trump New Moon. January 18, 2026

t. Uranus square n. Mars

t. Mars/Mercury
opposite n. Venus

t. Chiron sextile n. Sun

t. Lunar Nodal Axis
sextile/trine n. Mercury

Summary:

World

- The Sun, Venus, and Mars will be conjunct for most of the lunar month. Venus wants to reduce tension, but Mars wants to increase tension. Hence, people may want to focus on actions that give them physical pleasure. This can include romance, exercise, sports, or other activities they enjoy.
- The Sun and Venus are in Sagittarius at the start of the month, and that puts an emphasis on travel, the thoughts of the masses, and a desire for growth and freedom. However, these planets will soon move into Capricorn where the emphasis will be on pulling back on growth in order to better control and regulate one's life.
- Jupiter in Cancer will square Chiron in Aries exactly on the day of the winter solstice, and so this influence may be felt for the next three months. In general, people will want to feel secure in their homes and personal space, and they will want to be able to grow in these environments. However, wounding from outside aggressive actions may likely interfere.

World

- From the second week of January until the end of the lunar month, Saturn in Pisces will sextile Uranus in Taurus. This could result in innovative dreams about resources being made concrete.
- The Uranus/Neptune/Pluto minor grand trine will endure throughout most of the month, and this will continue to spur imagination, innovation, and creativity. Globally, invention and advances in technology will continue. On a personal level, though, more and more people will open themselves up to higher perspectives, some will undergo deep transformation, and those who are the most spiritually awake will help spread this enlightenment by connecting to everyone through meditation.
- The most difficult time of the month may be the grand cross at the time of the 3rd quarter moon on January 10th. Nonetheless, the next full moon on January 18th shows incredible harmony.
- Also, during the first week of the lunar month, trines from Chiron to Venus and Mercury will help promote healing of the mind. However, other aspects involving inner planets will bring small but almost daily challenges.

Summary:

America

- Transiting Neptune in Pisces square natal Venus in Cancer will continue to drive discontent among the public regarding the ideological direction the country is taking. The philosophies of others will cause confusion and conflict with personal values. Beware of conspiracy theories!
- However, transiting Saturn in Pisces in the 6th House trine 10th House Mercury in Cancer and sextile natal Moon in Capricorn in the 4th House will likely result in constructive actions that will benefit the economy, relations with other countries, the executive branch, and the people. Workers and health care could also be affected. In short, self-discipline and hard work will benefit everybody. This will last until about the end of December.
- Transiting Uranus in Taurus in the 8th House trine natal Pluto in Capricorn in the 4th House could increase the power of Americans, in general. Since Uranus is in Taurus, this may happen through the resources of others or other financial matters.

America

- Transiting Jupiter sextile natal Neptune peaks on December 23rd and lasts until approximately the end of December. This will tend to create some euphoria this holiday season that may, however, be unrealistic.
- Transiting Jupiter square natal Chiron in January will likely increase some wounding for America. When this aspect was last exact on September 15th, Americans were facing rising inflation and 40% said they were expecting another civil war. Also, on September 10th Charlie Kirk was assassinated in Utah.
- At the end of the lunar month, the transiting Lunar Nodal Axis will strongly square natal Uranus. This could stir up some war or revolutionary sentiment.

Summary:

Trump

- Transiting Chiron sextile natal Sun will bring healing to Trump and his status throughout the lunar month, and with transiting Jupiter conjunct natal Venus and transiting Saturn trine natal Venus at the start of the lunar month, many things will go Trump's way. Also, Saturn trine Venus will be exact on December 23rd, the same day that transiting Jupiter will exactly sextile natal Neptune in the July 2, 1776, chart for America. Thus, favorable events may occur that tie these two transits together.
- Nonetheless, the full moon on January 3 will be a difficult time with an increased risk of wounding of some sort, and a series of hard transits from Mars will plague Trump throughout the lunar month. Beginning with the second week of January, transiting Uranus square natal Mars will likely make Trump angry and even more chaotic than usual.
- January 13th through January 18th will be when Trump is most at risk from anger or violence due to transiting Mars opposite his natal Saturn and Venus.
