Summary:

America

- With progressed Sun square natal Mars all year long using the July 2, 1776, chart for America, it is expected that America's aggressive tendencies will be unleashed this year both at home and abroad. Also, this square will become exact in November shortly after the midterm elections. Thus, there is a heightened risk of violence around that time.
- With the Lunar Nodal Axis squaring natal Uranus throughout the lunar month, people are going to be feeling quite revolutionary.
- And with Saturn and Neptune squaring natal Venus, people will be facing new philosophies and ideologies that conflict with their values.
- There is an increased potential for aggression or violence this month, and people may be wounded both physically and economically.
- A trine from Uranus to Pluto, however, could result in an opening of people's minds, organized protests, and efforts to return power to the people.

Summary:

Trump

- With transiting Chiron square natal Saturn and transiting Jupiter square natal Chiron, Trump is likely to experience some sort of wounding to either his approval rating, health, finances, or control over others.
- The Saturn/Neptune conjunction takes place on the cusp of his 8th House, and given his age, the likelihood of death or other type of transformation this year also increases. However, a grab for other people's resources may be even more likely. He may have to bend to the collective will of other people's values.
- Transits to and from Mars in the first half of the lunar month will likely increase his anger and his actions. Also, transiting Uranus square natal Mars will continue to make his actions chaotic in the first half of the lunar month.
- The trine from transiting Pluto to his natal 2nd House Neptune that occurs towards the end of the lunar month could result in spontaneous enlightenment, but it is far more likely that he will hatch some new scheme to make himself both richer and more powerful. His charisma will also benefit.
