THE LUNAR MONTH FEBRUARY 9 — MARCH 10

Transits NATAL CHART

Transit to Transit:

OVERVIEW

- A persistent sextile between Jupiter and Saturn will help to create a balance between growth and regulation through the first part of March.
- The February 19th conjunction of Chiron with the North Node can intensity wounding, healing, and transcendence throughout the year as a consequence of the intensification of the transcendent energy that Chiron represents.
- The period around February 7th will feel good as a result of Mars sextile Neptune.
- Tensions will rise around February 13th as Mars conjuncts Pluto and again around February 27th as Mars squares Jupiter.
- Tensions will ease again around March 4-6 as Mars sextiles Chiron and the North Node but then rise again around March 9 as Mars squares Uranus.
