

THE LUNAR MONTH
JULY 5 – AUGUST 4

REVIEW OF LAST LUNAR MONTH – JUNE 6 TO JULY 5

- A strong sextile between Neptune and Pluto will endure throughout the lunar month, and it will result in more transcendent thoughts and inspirations for many. This aspect may be felt more at a psychological level than at the physical level. I, however, have certainly felt this more transcendent influence.
- The lunar month will begin with frustration and irritation with the thoughts of others as Saturn squares the Sun, Moon, and Venus while Pluto makes a sesquiquadrate to the same.
The United Nations' inquiry into the October 7 attacks and resulting conflict found that both Israel and Hamas committed war crimes.
- However, at the same time, a small triangle between Jupiter, Pluto, and Neptune at the start of the lunar month will help release some tensions and promote higher thinking. Again, this is something that I've felt more at the personal level as a powerful transcendent energy looming in the background. These energies may turn into concrete actions at a later date. However, Boeing did successfully launch Starliner to the ISS.

- Much of the month will consist of fast-moving irritations (hard aspects involving inner planets) and pressures for change (inconjunct aspects).
As expected, the month seems to have been dominated by quick tensions and adjustments rather than major events.
- The first half of the lunar month will have a focus on ideas (Sun, Mercury, and Venus in Gemini) while the second half of the lunar month will focus more on security (Sun, Mercury, and Venus in Cancer).
Much of what has occurred this month has been felt subjectively rather than seen objectively in a dramatic fashion, and this last shift is no exception.

Regarding how the Lunar Month has affected countries and people, everything has unfolded pretty much as expected. For instance, it has been tough in the Middle East for Israel, Netanyahu, and Hamas, Princess Kate appears to be holding her own, and Trump has had some court decisions go his way. Also, King Charles and Pope Francis both seem to be doing better than expected and they have thankfully avoided the worst of what could possibly happen to themselves healthwise.

OVERVIEW – JULY 5 TO AUGUST 4

- Again, a strong sextile between Neptune and Pluto will continue to endure and strengthen throughout the lunar month, and it will result in more transcendent thoughts and inspirations for many.
- While certain individuals and individual countries will have a trying time, the world at large will experience more good aspects than bad aspects. However, the middle of the month may see more violence, unrest, and revolution as Mars conjuncts Uranus on July 15.
- By the beginning of August, though, tense aspects will dominate with Neptune sextile Pluto being the only major good aspect. This tension will increase throughout the month and may culminate on August 19 with the square between Saturn and Jupiter. This day will be a turning or decision point that harkens back to the 2020 Jupiter/Saturn conjunction at the beginning of Aquarius. In other words, will we continue to move forward to a world of new technology, humanitarianism, and power to the people, or will we retreat back to an old world order?
