Additionally, some of the things going on in March will be a continuation of the 2020 conjunctions of Saturn with Pluto and Saturn with Jupiter.

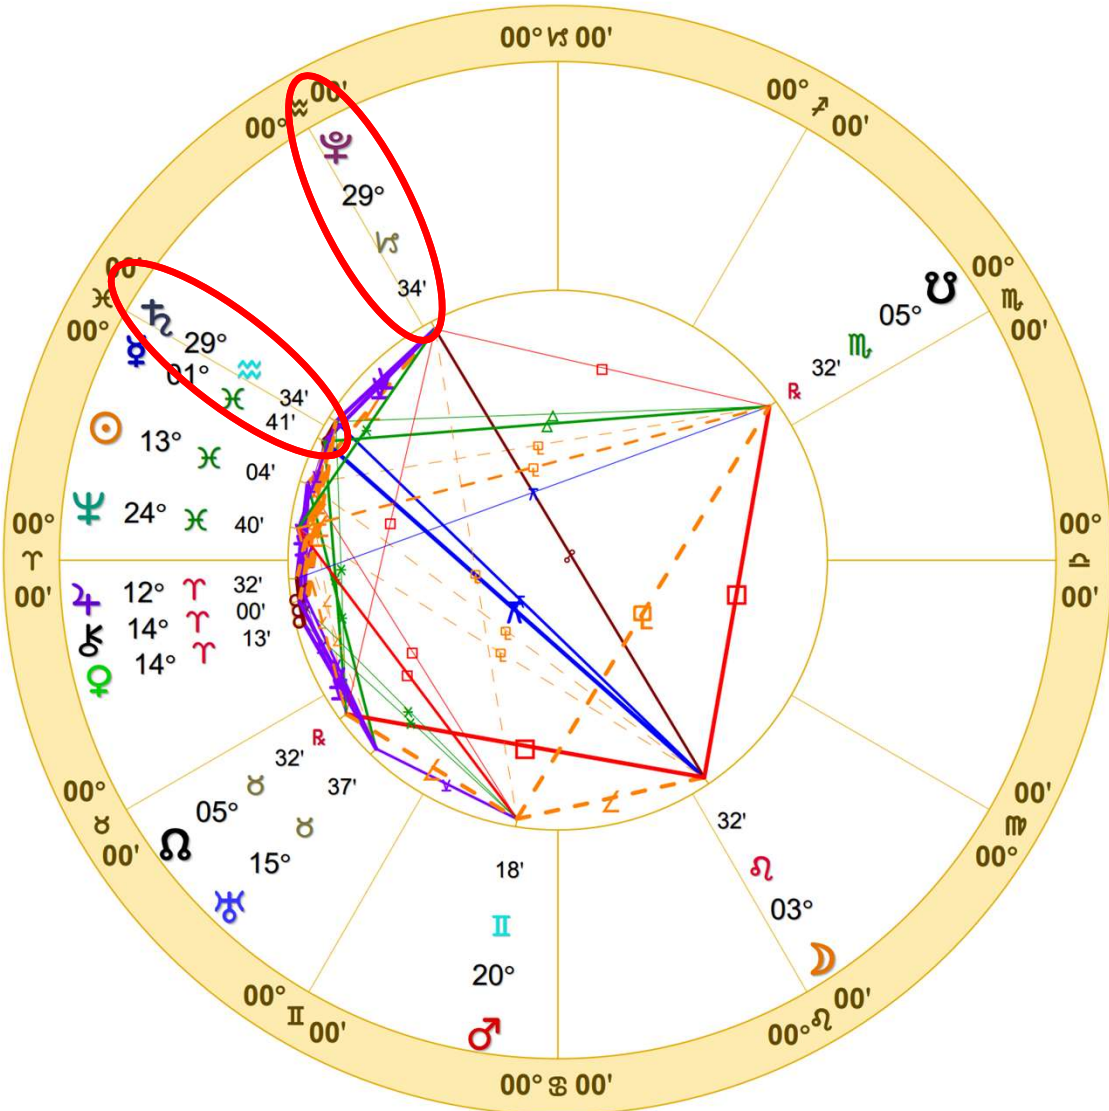

Also, there are 8 topics in my presentation, and I've grouped them into 6 sections so that we can pause briefly at the end of each for a short, collaborative discussion. Let's begin!

1. Saturn semisextile Pluto
2. Saturn enters Pisces
3. Jupiter conjunct Chiron
4. Mars square Neptune & Chiron opposition Natal Saturn
5. Pluto enters Aquarius

Saturn will geocentrically semisextile Pluto on March 3, 2023, and heliocentrically semisextile Pluto on March 11, 2023. To understand why this is important, let's go back to the most recent conjunctions of Saturn, Pluto, and other planets at 22° Capricorn to put current events in historical perspective.

On January 12, 2020, Pluto (death) conjunct Saturn (destruction) in Capricorn began a cycle of transformation of structures that will last until 2053. This was essentially the start of the pandemic and other major changes, and it is also the date on which I got covid for the first time.

Furthermore, since this conjunction occurred in the 22nd degree of Capricorn, this may add extra tension to the situation, and this is because $22\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ is $\frac{3}{4}$ of the way through a 30° cycle just as 270° is $\frac{3}{4}$ of the way through a 360° cycle. Hence, this degree position in any sign may be like a waning square.

The January 12, 2020, Saturn/Pluto conjunction also made a strong quincunx to Putin's natal Pluto at 22+ degrees Leo that's conjunct his Lunar Nodal axis, and it also squared his 12th house Mercury/Neptune conjunction. This likely fueled his desire to possess Ukraine.

And we are now entering the next phase of this synodic cycle. The January 12, 2020, Pluto/Saturn conjunction initiated a period in which a pandemic caused many of the world's structures to break down, and this was followed by a dictator's (Pluto in Capricorn) invasion of Ukraine. But in March, we enter a new phase of this cycle in which Saturn and Pluto will begin to work more independently of one another. Saturn will start a "2nd house" relationship with Pluto and will try to stabilize and maintain whatever transformations (good or bad) that Pluto began.

Currently, the covid pandemic has been brought under control in most countries and we are entering an endemic phase that will be characterized by predictable patterns and effective countermeasures. And in the war in Ukraine, we also seem to be entering a new phase in which each side is literally entrenched in “trench warfare” in order to preserve whatever gains they’ve made.

But first, less than an hour before Saturn's ingress, there will be a Full Moon with Mars square Neptune, Mars conjunct natal Mars in the Sibley chart for America, and Chiron opposite natal Saturn. These aspects will become exact around mid-March, and they and Saturn's ingress into Pisces will probably be intensified by this Full Moon.

When Saturn is in Pisces, we also expect some old structures to deteriorate and dissolve, and since it will be co-present with Neptune, it will also be like a conjunction with Neptune. For America, I use both a July 2, 1776, chart for the passage of the Resolution for Independence and the July 4, 1776, chart for when George Washington was informed of this decision. In each chart, Neptune is in Virgo square Mars in Gemini, and thus, transits through Pisces can inflame passions, disinformation, and violence in America. Thus, we'll face more challenges as both Saturn and Neptune move through Pisces over the next three years.

America and Neptune at 0+ degrees Aries

The American Civil War began in 1861 as Neptune left Pisces and entered Aries, and several aspects that preceded the Civil War have been repeating themselves – the Jupiter/Neptune conjunction in Pisces, transiting Neptune opposite Neptune and square Mars, and Uranus conjunct North Node in Taurus. Things may come to a head in 2025-2026 for Russia and America.

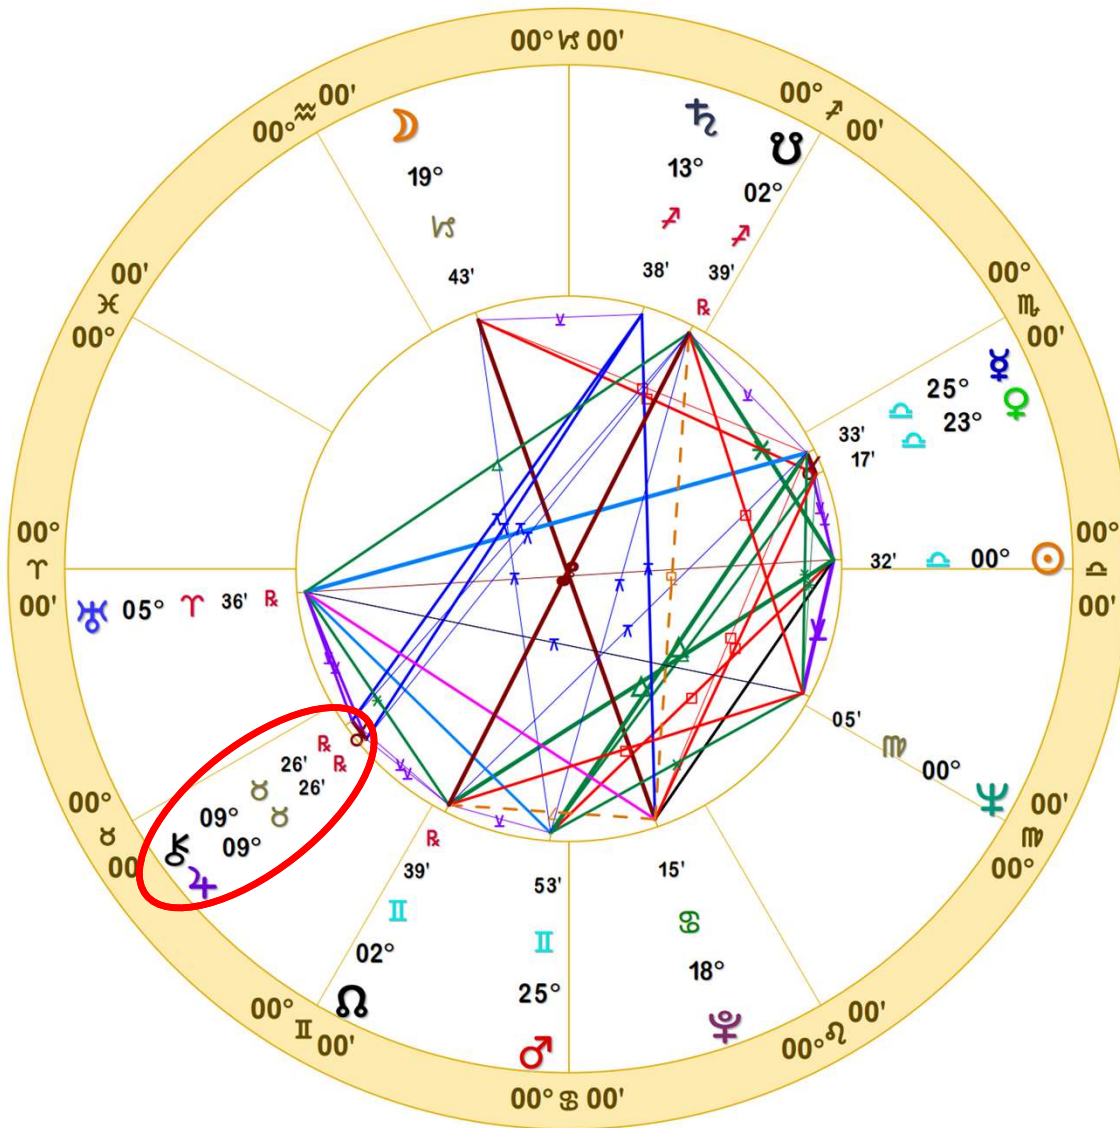

Saturn and Neptune will have a near conjunction in July 2025 and an exact conjunction in February 2026. I personally think there is a 50-50 chance that Putin will be gone before the end of 2023 and that Russia may collapse by February 2026. America seems to be in better shape but is currently trying to resolve threats to its own democracy.

Jupiter will be conjunct Chiron in Aries throughout most of March and will be exact on March 11. Chiron can cause wounding, healing, or transcendence, and Jupiter expands things while Aries is a sign that seeks independence of self. On the downside, there may be more wounding through war, but on the positive side there will likely also be some who find a deep spirituality or transcendence within their own being rather than exterior religions. We may or may not immediately see the consequences of this conjunction but keep an eye out for things related to the keywords above. Let's look now at what Jupiter/Chiron conjunctions have done in the past.

Aquarius

While the Affordable Care Act ,which brought compassion and healing to the masses, was Chiron's gift to America, I would say that it was Obama, himself ,and his emphasis on hope and change through dialogue and democratic channels that Chiron gave to the rest of the world. And in recognition of this preview of the "Age of Aquarius," Obama was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 2009.

In March 2023, Jupiter and Chiron will once again be conjunct in Aries, and as in 1976, we expect some sort of individual, transcendent spirituality to emerge.

March 11, 2023

Based on past experience, it will change our world, but it may also be a few years, as was the case for Star Wars and Harry Potter, before we realize it. Additionally,

America will be deeply affected since this conjunction is in direct opposition to Saturn to the degree in July 2 – July 4, 1776 charts.

Chiron will be in opposition to Saturn in the July 1776, charts on March 17. Thus, there may be some wounding or addressing of past actions at this point. This opposition also occurred in September 2022 (Hurricane Ian) and in May 2022 (mass shootings in Buffalo, NY, and Uvalde, TX).

From 1972 to 1975, transiting Chiron made a series of oppositions to natal Saturn and a series of conjunctions to natal Chiron in the July 1776 charts for America. These aspects can trigger either wounding, healing, or transcendence, and the major story during this period was the Watergate scandal and the Senate's select committee to investigate the scandal. Also, Roe v Wade.

CHAT GPT, what will happen when Pluto moves into Aquarius?

1. Transformation and Evolution: Pluto is often associated with deep transformation and evolution, and its movement through Aquarius may bring about changes related to technology, social structures, and human connections. This may involve a shift towards more innovative and progressive ideas, as well as a breaking down of traditional power structures and hierarchies.
2. Intense Growth and Change: The energy of Pluto is intense, and its movement through Aquarius may bring about periods of upheaval and change. This may involve endings and beginnings, and may require individuals and society to adapt to new circumstances.
3. A Focus on Collective Goals: Aquarius is associated with community, innovation, and collaboration, and as Pluto moves through this sign, there may be a greater emphasis on collective goals and working towards the greater good. This may involve a shift towards more democratic and participatory forms of governance and decision-making.

Pluto was last in Aquarius from 1778 – 1798. This was the time of the American and French Revolutions that showed that power can reside with the people instead of a single individual (the king). Whenever Pluto moves from Capricorn into Aquarius, there is always a shift of power to the people.

The current battle for freedom and democracy is between Ukraine and Russia, and Pluto's ingress into Aquarius favors Ukraine. However, when it moves back into Capricorn on June 11 for the rest of the year, the tide may turn back in Russia's favor for a while. Nonetheless, Pluto returns to Aquarius in January 2024 and only briefly retrogrades into Capricorn from September 2024 until November 2024. In America, Pluto in Aquarius will promote science and humanitarian concerns, but when it retrogrades back into Capricorn in fall 2024, this could influence the presidential election. Just as a retrograde Jupiter in Pisces favored a progressive candidate in 2020, Pluto back in Capricorn favors a candidate that appears either stronger, older, or more conservative. Pluto won't leave Aquarius for good until 2044, and much progress will likely be made in technology, democracy, and global cooperation by then.

Pluto will be in its retrograde zone for almost the entirety of 2023, and during this year it will spend all of its time in Aquarius at 0+ degrees. This is extremely important due to past conjunctions at this longitude. Also, 0+ degrees Aquarius is a beginning of collaborative energies and a move away from authoritarianism, a planting of Aquarian seeds that will sprout over time.

Jupiter/Saturn conjunctions always try to restore a balance between growth and restriction, freedom and regulation. However, they also have a history of shaking things up in Europe. China could also be impacted by Pluto in Aquarius in 2023 since its natal chart has Moon at 1+ degrees of Aquarius. Since the Moon represents the people and is in the 2nd house but rules the 8th house, China may experience some internal rebellion, more deaths from covid, or some financial difficulties as well. But these are only educated guesses. Something else in line with this transit may occur instead.

President Biden may also experience increased pressures or sorrows between March and June since transiting Pluto will square his Moon at 0+ degrees Taurus. Things look better, though, from March 28 through April 6 when Mars, Mercury, Saturn, and the Lunar Nodes create a kite formation that can reduce tensions. Also, in spite of the square from Mercury to Pluto, things may be different by this time since Pluto has recently entered Aquarius. Let's hope for the best!

CONCLUSIONS

Based upon what we've seen astrologically, I have the following expectations for March 2023 and beyond.

- Much of what is happening now is a playing out of the January 2020 Saturn/Pluto conjunction in Capricorn (pandemics and dictators) and the December 2020 Jupiter/Saturn conjunction in Aquarius (a new beginning for freedom, democracy, technology, global cooperation, and collaborative learning).
- The almost 3-year sojourn of Saturn in Pisces will likely bring about major political changes for both America and Russia.
- The Jupiter/Chiron conjunction in Aries will bring something into the world that is both transcendent and enduring, but we may not be aware of it for several years.
- A mid-March square of Mars and Neptune presents a heightened risk of violence and fanaticism for a few days
- The mid-March opposition of Chiron to natal Saturn in the July 1776 charts could bring about some wounding for America, and it remains to be seen whether the benefic Jupiter lessens the pain or simply amplifies the wounding.
- Pluto's long sojourn through Aquarius will ultimately be beneficial, but its lingering at 0+ degrees Aquarius this year will be a very critical point in history.

So, is 2023 the beginning of the Age of Aquarius? Technically no because the astrological ages are brought about by a slow rotation of constellations known as the precession of the equinoxes and not by transits. However, even though no one knows when the Age of Aquarius will actually begin, most astrologers feel that we are now on the threshold of it, and Pluto's transit through Aquarius will bring a lot of that Aquarian energy to the forefront. Furthermore, ...

Additionally, the Barbault Planetary Cycle Index was at its low for the century from the beginning of 2020 until late March 2022. This index is a cumulative sum of the distances between the outer planets from Jupiter through Pluto, and when the index is low that means that the outer planets are bunched close together resulting in an imbalance. Also, from January through April of 2022 the non-Lunar planets were hemmed in on one side by the Lunar Nodes, a condition known as kala sarpa yoga that inhibits the flow of energy. Furthermore, the index hit its absolute low in late March 2022, and Chiron was squaring natal Sun in July 1776 charts for America. If last March felt really bad to you, now you know why!

Mars enters Cancer

After being in Gemini for seven months, Mars finally starts moving at normal speed and enters Cancer where it will put more focus on family, personal environment, and security.
