

QUOTIENT GROUPS – PRACTICE

Theorem: If N is a normal subgroup of a group G , then $G/N = \{Na \mid a \in G\}$ is a group where the multiplication of cosets is defined in terms of the multiplication of elements in G . In other words, $Na \cdot Nb = N(ab)$.

Proof: