

GROUPS WITH AN EVEN NUMBER OF ELEMENTS – PRACTICE

Theorem: If a finite group G has an even number of elements, then at least one non-identity element is its own inverse.

Proof: