

COMMUTATORS IN NORMAL SUBGROUPS – PRACTICE

Theorem: Let G be a group, let M and N be normal subgroups of G , and let $m \in M$ and $n \in N$. Then the commutator of m by n , $m^{-1}n^{-1}mn$, is an element of $M \cap N$.

Proof: